

News from the Corresponding Secretary

Donna Weidenfeller

Regretfully I need to inform you David Normand -Harris passed away on June 22, 2007. He was staying near London at the time of his death. As a member of the SF Branch and Noe Valley class he graced us with his presence whenever he was in the Bay area. He attended the Mid-Winter Ball this year and donned the first kilt woven with the official RSCDS tartan he designed. The Spring "Scottish Country Dancer" has an article describing his process of creating the tartan recently approved by the Management Board. It's obvious from the article that David carefully thought about how to design this tartan. He'll be remembered for this historical contribution to the Society. His ongoing involvement with the RSCDS led him to be elected to the position of Convenor of the Education and Training Committee. Those of you who recently completed the full certificate teacher training course benefited from some of the changes he initiated. David danced most of his life. As a young lad he danced with a group of children for Queen Elizabeth. He completed his full certificate at the earliest age allowed; under the tutelage of Florence Adams and Jean Milligan was his examiner. He has been one of our delegates to the AGM and recruited delegates so that we would have our full representation. When the Management Board decided to appoint a member of the management committee to each of the RSCDS Branches, David readily offered to be our liaison. Many of you had the opportunity to enjoy his quick wit, his "Edinburgh" style of dancing, his readiness to engage in conversation, his great smile, and opinions on many subjects. He also enjoyed knitting hose, working in his English style garden, cooking elaborate meals, and listening to music. David was a very private person; there was always an air of mystery about him. I will miss him.

At this time I would like to introduce our new Management Board liaison, Pat Houghton. David and Pat served on the Management Board together; they were also friends. Pat and her husband Dave will be attending Asilomar this year. Besides recently elected to the Management Board, Pat is a full certificate teacher, dances with various demonstration teams, teaches at Summer School in St. Andrews, and is a sought after guest teacher for workshops and day schools. Next year she will be teaching a workshop in Japan!! If you would like to meet Pat and/or have a discussion with her about the Management Board, let me know.

RSCDS Dance Scottish Week celebrations will be held throughout the Scottish dance world from September 7-15, 2007. Headquarters will be hosting receptions, lectures, and dancing. Each Branch was asked to have a representative present at one these activities. I have asked Harry Andrews who is a member of the San Francisco Branch and living in Edinburgh to represent the SF Branch. He was honored to be asked and will attend the festivities.

Dancing at Westmont High School

by Bruce Anderson

On Wednesday, May 16, Paula Jacobson taught three classes of trigonometry at Westmont High School in Campbell. The excuse was a week long celebration of ethnic traditions. Wednesday was Scotland's day. For each class, there were warm-ups and three dances. Paula had a little help from a willing cadre of sashed and kilted volunteers from the Mountain View class: Julee Montes, Margaret Mitchell, Sue Anderson, Janet Kitajima, Bill Stocker, Armin Busse, and Roy Hayter. Almost 90 students claimed that they had a really good time and that this had nothing to do with avoiding a lesson on polar coordinates. They agreed that dancing was a surprising amount of work. One student allowed as how Armin was really cute, and Bill had the best costume. Eighteen students volunteered to perform on the quad at lunch. They attracted a fairly attentive audience and so impressed the activities director that they earned a pizza party at the end of the week. Paula worked 9:00 till 2:30 with only a few short breaks. On Friday the front office was still buzzing with what she had helped the students do.
